CONFERENCE PACK

ABOUT THE HOTEL

Dovecliff Hall is a fine Grade 2 listed Georgian Manor House dating from 1790, Set in beautiful 7-acre gardens, overlooking the River Dove.

The Hall has been carefully restored with great attention to its grand staircase, panelled Piano bar and spacious Drawing room and Library, making it one of the most elegant and interesting Restaurants in the Midlands which is renowned locally and internationally for its magnificent cuisine.

Enormous efforts have been made to bring the previously neglected gardens back to the high standards of an English Country House. The original carriageway has been uncovered and the cliff walk cleared to allow views of the River and its rushing weir.

The extensive lawns and formal gardens with the giant Cedar tree almost as old as the hall, and the shaded spinney give the hall an imposing background.

All bedrooms are luxuriously furnished with views of either the gardens or the river and have the usual amenities such as hospitality trays, direct dial telephones, trouser presses and hair dryers and en suite modern bathrooms as well as flat-screen digital televisions with free view and high speed wireless internet access which extends to all the conference rooms and public areas.

A quiet retreat, the Hall is set back from the main road and offers a unique tranquility of its own; gearing towards discerning clients with more personalized and tailored requirements.

The Hotel is ideally situated just outside the town of Burton-upon-Trent and Derby, within easy reach of M1, A50 and M40 along with Birmingham International and East Midlands airports within half an hour
